

Code and title of qualification	Certificate IV in Information Technology (Networking) ICA40405
Units of competency	Code	Title	Core/Elective
	BSBCMN304A	Contribute to personal skill development and learning	Core
	ICAA4041A	Determine and confirm client business expectations and needs	Core
	ICAB4220A	Create scripts for networking	Core
	ICAB4225A	Automate processes	Core
	ICAD4043A	Develop and present a feasibility report	Core
	ICAD4217A	Create technical documentation	Core
	ICAI4029A	Install network hardware to a network	Core
	ICAI4030A	Install software to networked computers	Core
	ICAI4097A	Install and configure a network	Core
	ICAI4099A	Build an intranet	Core
	ICAI4188A	Install and maintain a server	Core
	ICAS4124A	Monitor and administer network security	Core
	ICAS4127A	Support system software	Core
	ICAT4221A	Locate equipment, system and software faults	Core
	ICAW4214A	Maintain ethical conduct	Core
	PSPPM402B	Manage simple projects	Core
	ICAI3101A	Install and manage network protocols	Elective
	ICAS3120A	Configure and administer a network operating system	Elective
	ICAB4135A	Create a simple mark-up language document to specification	Elective
	ICAD4190A	Maintain Information Standards	Elective
Client(s)	The target group for the Certificate IV in Information Technology (Networking) ICA40405 is appropriate for those people who are wishing to obtain a qualification in Information Technology (Networking). This course provides the skills and knowledge for an individual to be competent in the installation of simple networks and in the area of network management. These clients include overseas students.		